a-Brick fundraiser. Visit our website to submit an order form, or order online through the Friends of the Library of Windham (FLOW) website: flowwindham.org/shop.

All of our existing bricks will be lifted and relaid along with newly

February Adult Programming

*Maria Schroeter, Adult Collection Development /
Adult Programming Librarian*

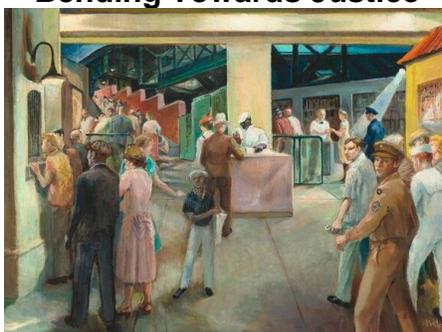

February is here already, which means we're that much closer to spring! With Valentine's Day coming up, you may want to read about relationships: Love on Lockdown Lane by Beth Reekles looks at the residents of an apartment building forced to quarantine for a week, without any notice, leaving various guests stranded at tenants' apartments; Already Enough by Lisa Olivera will lead you on a path of self-acceptance and the realization that you are already enough; and finally, The Christie Affair by Nina de Gramont imagines the circumstances surrounding the 11 days that Agatha Christie went missing. All of these are already listed in our catalog and ready for you to put on hold. If you need help putting an item on hold, just give us a call and we can walk you through it, or do it for you.

Nesmith Library Book Group

The Nesmith Library Book Group will meet in person (or virtually, if COVID cases dictate) on Wednesday, February 9 at 6:00 p.m. This month we've been reading The House in the Cerulean Sea by TJ Klune. If you didn't have a chance to read the book, no worries! Come to the meeting and start with our next book (title to be revealed shortly!) and mark your calendar. We typically meet every second Wednesday of the month at 6:00 p.m. In order to participate, you must have a Nesmith Library card or a card from one of the libraries in our consortium, you need to be over the age of 16, and you must register.

Bending Towards Justice

Martin Luther King, Jr. once said, "The arc of the moral universe is long, but it bends towards justice." Expanding on Dr. King's quote, we will host, "Bending Towards Justice: African Americans as Subject and Creators in American Art," on Wednesday, February 16 at 6:00 p.m. with our favorite art educator, Jane Oneail! In this virtual Zoom presentation, Jane will examine that arc as it relates to African American history enshrined in American art. From colonial-era portraits to 19th century and Jim Crow-era prints to 1960s Civil Rights photography, this program will provide a visual overview of African American oppression, struggle, and progress towards equality.

Jane Oneail is an independent scholar and holds a master's degree in Art History from Boston University and a master's degree in Art in Education from Harvard University. Jane is a New Hampshire native and has worked at some of the state's most esteemed cultural institutions, including the League of New Hampshire Craftsmen, where she served as Executive Director, and the Currier Museum of Art, where she held the role of Senior Educator. Jane has also taught at the college level for more than a decade, most recently at the NH Institute of Art. Find out more about Jane, and her art programs, on her website: iamculturallycurious.com.

Why Does My Cat Do That?

Wondering why your cat gets the "zoomies," or how to get multiple cats to share the same space peacefully? Join us on Zoom, Thursday, February 24 at 6:00 p.m, when cat behaviorist Dr. Rachel Geller will help find solutions to your cat conundrums. Bring your questions, as the majority of the program will be a Q&A session with Dr. Geller!

Rachel Geller, Ed.D. is a certified Cat Behavior and Retention Specialist through the Humane Society and a certified Humane Education Specialist through the Academy of Prosocial Learning. She is also a certified Pet Chaplain® through the Association of Veterinary Pastoral Education. Rachel consults with many cat shelters and is certified as a Fear Free Shelter specialist. She was on The Cat Connection Board of Directors from 2017 to 2020. Previously, she was on the Board of Directors in the role of vice-president at the Gifford Cat Shelter for seven years. She is currently a cat behaviorist/consultant for The Cat Connection, Here Today Adopted Tomorrow Animal Sanctuary, and Baypath Humane Society, and provides cat behavior help both locally and throughout the country to her clients, including cat owners and shelters. ## FLOW Volunteer Opportunities

Sandy Sun,
FLOW Publicity

The Friends of the Library of Windham (FLOW) is growing and looking for fellow members of the community to serve on our board and committees. The FLOW board is made up of volunteers that work together to support the Nesmith Library in a variety of ways. We meet once a month (September to May) to plan events such as the Strawberry Take-Home kits, Strawberry Festival, book fairs, and family events like the Build a Buddy Workshop. We collaborate and discuss ways to increase community awareness about all that the Nesmith Library has to offer, and how we can best support a wide range of needs. We hope that you will consider a position on our board.

For more information visit flowwindham.org or sign our volunteer form: <https://www.flowwindham.org/copy-of-strawberry-fest-volunteer-f-1>.
