

Teen Advisory Group Application

What is the Teen Advisory Group? The Teen Advisory Group (TAG) is a group of teen volunteers in Grades 7-12 who help make the Nesmith Library a welcoming space for their peers.

What does the Teen Advisory Group do? The TAG meets as a group once a month in order to brainstorm library programs, give feedback on the Teen Space, create library displays and booklists, and work on other library or community based activities. TAG members may also complete projects outside the library, such as writing book reviews, advertising teen library programs, etc.

Why apply? There's a chance to meet new people, work on fun projects, and provide input on your library space! TAG members also gain volunteer hours for school community service requirements and involvement in the group can also be listed on college/job applications.
